BILL GILES
President, Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner

From a part-time staffer who did odds and ends to the President of a major league baseball club. That's the lifetime baseball story of William Y. (Bill) Giles.

Born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, nearly all of Giles' life has been spent around the game of baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

He attained his current position on October 29, 1981. It was on this date, Giles' group of partners purchased the Phillies from the Carpenter family. When the Carpenters announced they were selling the club prior to the 1981 season, Giles went to work organizing a group. He interviewed a field of 200 potential partners. His final group consisted of six different partners.

Giles' path to Philadelphia wound through the minor leagues and two big league clubs.

His first official baseball position came when he was 19, following his freshman year at Denison University. "I was sent to Morristown (TN) in the old Mountain States League as General Manager to save a poor team. Within a week, the entire league folded," he laughs now.

While at Denison he played football and baseball and was President of the Sigma Chi fraternity his senior year.

Following graduation (BA degree in Economics), Giles spent three years in the U. S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career began full time in 1959, following a discharge from the Air Force, when he was named General Manager of the Nashville Vols (Cincinnati Reds minor league team). From there he moved to the expansion Houston Colt .45s.

While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 baseball season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

The Phillies are very active in the community. The tone for community involvement is set by Giles. He donates many hours to the community. He's active in many organizations: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Economic Coalition and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year (1985) by the Boy Scouts of America, 1992 recipient of the Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994), and Anti-Defamation Leagues Man of the Year (1994).

Giles is likewise very active in Major League Baseball matters. He's currently on the Executive Council, Official Rules Committee, Television Committee, Schedule Format Committee and Chairman of the Marketing Committee

Bill and his wife, Nancy, reside in Villanova, PA. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Chris. Joe and his wife, Paula, and Chris, his wife, Amy and daughter, Elizabeth all live in the Philadelphia area.

DAVID MONTGOMERY
Executive Vice President Chief Operating Officer and Co-General Partner

David Montgomery assumed the duties of the day to day business operations when Bill Giles became president in 1982.

Montgomery joined the Phillies in February 1971, as a member of the Sales Department. He progressed to positions of Marketing Director and Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice-President. His title was changed to Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer in January of 1992. In November of 1994, he was designated as Co-General Partner.

Born June 26, 1946 in Philadelphia, David is a graduate of The William Penn Charter School and the University of Pennsylvania where he majored in history. He then received an M.B.A. from the Wharton School.

David serves on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Properties and Major League Baseball Properties, Canada. In addition, he acts as Chairman of the Industry Strategy Committee.

He is involved in various civic activities, including serving on the boards of Need in Deed, the Better Business Bureau of Southeastern Pennsylvania and the advisory Committee of the Schukyill Center for Environmental Education. He is also a Vice President of the General Alumni Society of the University of Pennsylvania.

He and his wife, Lyn, have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa and make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

RULE 4.11 (d) . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next schedule, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

A game is in the hands of the home team up until the game starts. Once a game has started, the Umpire-In-Chief assumes the right to determine whether the game shall be stopped because of the bad weather or unfit playing conditions.

When a game is temporarily suspended because of rain, umpires must wait 1 hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

TIE GAMES

The Phillies have played 77 tie games since 1900, including a club record eight in 1913. The longest stretch without a tie game was from October 3, 1965 to April 7, 1979, covering 2,103 scheduled games. The last time a game was tied was June 5, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh.

Tie games by Club: Cubs and *Braves 14 each; Giants 11; †Dodgers 10; Reds 9; Cardinals and Pirates 8; Expos 2; Mets 1; Astros, Padres, Marlins and Rockies 0.

* Phils have not had a tie vs. the Braves or Dodgers since those clubs moved to Atlanta and Los Angeles.

QUALIFYING MARKS

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or

(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completed a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher) by total plate appearances (at bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

WAIVERS—Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes.

NO WAIVERS are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's early history. The Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team.

Philadelphia's earliest team was called the Athletics. The year was 1870. The following year, the National Association was formed and Philadelphia was a part of that league. The team was still called the Athletics.

Al Reach

When the Association disbanded, several of the stronger teams formed (1876) the National League, as it is known today. The charter members where the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

Lost First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,578 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 90 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game, April 30, a 19-10 loss to the New York Giants.

Baker Bowl

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 14 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Shibe Park later renamed Connie Mack Stadium

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-8 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903-1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr, the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays although they still maintained the official Phillies title. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

The name Blue Jays was heavily used the first two years (1944-45) and then began to appear less often in the newspapers in 1946 and 1947. The name never appeared in the newspapers after that year.

When Carpenter took over as President, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, called the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbetts Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1.

Bob Carpenter, Jr.

Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a string of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles.

A world title eluded the Phillies as the New York Yankees swept the Phillies in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Thirteen years and many disagreements later, Veterans Stadium opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971.

1980 World Series Trophy

Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history when at precisely 11:29 p.m., Tuesday, October 21, 1980, Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its' first World Championship. Dallas Green was the manager.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as president in 1972 and general manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League east in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

The Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Utopia hit Philadelphia when the Phillies won the Series over the Royals, 4-2.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the only pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

Giles Buys Team

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, put together five other partners and purchased the team for $30 million.

In Giles' second year as owner, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS.

The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. A new set of heroes emerged from the 1993 season, when a last-place team from the previous year turned it around with another division title.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through schrewd moves by general manager Lee Thomas.

Bill Giles

Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens, as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Heroes such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team, which led the NL for all but one day throughout the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a team with a total team effort. All 25 emerged as heroes.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favorite Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

But, Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise, Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners, Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

By Saam

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television: Gene Kelly, By Saam, Rich Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Under Giles' regime, the Phillies became more and more involved in the community and helping people. Over a ten-year period which began in 1984, the Phillies Family of players, wives and office staff, raised more than $2 million to strike out ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease).

Individual players contributed financially and personally in helping many, many charities.

In 1989, the Phillies began a Rookie League program for inner-city kids. Last year, more than 7,000 boys and girls played in the leagues. In August of 1995, Philadelphia will host the RBI World Series. RBI leagues are part of the Rookie League program.

Oh yes. There's one more historic date in Phillies history....April 25, 1978, when a big green furry creature made its' debut as the team's mascot....Phillie Phanatic. As with the 113-year old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

****

The 1995 season takes on another historic note....the 25th at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies home since Connie Mack Stadium (originally called Shibe Park) closed following the 1970 season.

TURNING SILVER

What seemed to take forever getting here will have its' 25th season when the Phillies open the Vet on April 10.

Twenty-four years ago to the day, the Phillies defeated Montreal, 4-1, in the first Veterans Stadium game.

Boots Day was the first batter and he grounded out, pitcher to first. Jim Bunning, at 39, the oldest starting pitcher in the majors at the time, won his 220th big league game. Shortstop Larry Bowa, leading off the Phils' first inning, singled to right for the first hit. Third baseman Don Money is in the record book for hitting the first home run, leading off the sixth inning.

The opener put a lid on years of frustration for the Phillies, Eagles and fans. A new multi-purpose sports stadium was first discussed as long ago as 1953. Disagreements over the location, size, shape, cost and funding kept delaying the plans. Finally, on October 2, 1967, ground was broken in south Philadelphia.

Since the Vet opened, the Phillies have won 1,066 games, lost 839 and played three ties. They've averaged over 2.1 million fans per season, drawing as few as 4,149 for a May 6, 1974 game vs. San Diego and as many as 67,064 for Game 5 of the 1983 World Series.

The Phillies have won six Eastern Division titles, but never clinched such a crown at home. They've won two pennants at home, 1983 and 1993 and the lone World Championship in the team's history, 1980.

Games have started as early as 12:05 and ended as late as 4:40 a.m.

Alphabetically, from Kyle Abbott to Pat Zachry, 354 different players have worn the Phillies pinstriped uniforms at the Vet.

DID YOU KNOW?

The largest trade in Phillies history involved eight players. There were two eight player deals involving the Phils:

On October 7, 1969, Richie Allen, Cookie Rojas and Jerry Johnson were traded to St. Louis for Curt Flood, Tim McCarver, Joe Hoerner and Byron Browne. Flood refused to report and the Cardinals sent Willie Montanez and Bob Browning in his place.

On February 23, 1979, the Phillies traded Barry Foote, Ted Sizemore, Jerry Martin, Derek Botelho and Henry Mack to the Cubs for Manny Trillo, Greg Gross and Dave Rader.

FREE AGENCY

Free agency came about in 1976 when 24 players refused to sign contracts and opted for, at season's end, the right to participate in a re-entry draft.

That draft took place in New York on November 4. Clubs were permitted to select players with whom they could negotiate. There was no compensation for clubs who lost players in this draft.

In later years, the draft was abolished and compensation was required.

Other than signing their own players who had opted for free agency and free agent players signed after being released, the Phillies involvement in the free agent market has been:

1976:	Signed Richie Hebner from Pirates
	Lost Dave Cash to Montreal
1978:	Signed Pete Rose from Cincinnati
1984:	Lost Sixto Lezcano to Pittsburgh
1987:	Signed Lance Parrish from Detroit
	Signed David Palmer from Atlanta
1989:	Signed Carmelo Martinez from San Diego
1990:	Signed Wally Backman from Pittsburgh
1992:	Signed Mariano Duncan from Cincinnati

	Signed Milt Thompson from St. Louis
	Signed Jim Eisenreich from Kansas City

DID YOU KNOW ?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, MA (Brown Stockings). They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest running nickname in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

MINOR LEAGUE REVIEW

Injuries in the majors put a strain on the Phillies minor league system in 1994.

Despite that, Phillies Scouting Director, Mike Arbuckle, began seeing favorable results from the last drafts, particularly in the lower levels. Batavia finished in second place, missing a chance at the playoffs by losing their final game of the season. Martinsville, although finishing in sixth place, won a team record 32 games.
